

The FCC would be so wrong to repeal the cross-ownership laws. The public is left unprotected from the results of the merger mania the FCC has thus far permitted. The FCC must be more responsive to the best interests of the public it allegedly serves and stop acting like it's the puppet of big and getting bigger media. I can't imagine a worse time to still the many voices of the people. Let your conscience be your guide.